

Pronghorn

Female Pronghorn(Doe)

Habitat-

- Throughout the plains and plains and mountain range

Diet-

- Grass
- Sagebrush
- Gamma
- Good eyesight to see long distance

Names

- Group-Band
- Juvenile- Fawn

Life Cycle

- Have a 5 to 8 lifespan
- Their only serious predator is a coyote

References

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/animals/mammals/p/pronghorn/>

Male Pronghorn(Buck)

Reproductive Cycle-

- Mate between September and October
- Have one to three babies in May through June

Hunting Regulations-

- South Dakota- Firearm dates
- Sep. 29- Oct. 14
- Need a tag before shooting

Migration-

- They migrate to different areas of the plains over Wyoming

Fun Fact- Pronghorn are the second fastest animal in the world, cheetah being the first

Deal, K. H. (2016). Large Mammals. In Wildlife & Natural Resource Management. Boston, MA: Cengage Learning.

