

Dall Sheep

Habitat

- Dry Country
- Open Alpine Ridges

Diet

- Grasses
- Broad-Leaved Plants
- Dwarf Willows

Life Cycle

- Young Sheep are called Lambs
- Adult Sheep are called Ewes
- Live for approximately 10-12 years

Reproductive Cycle

- Lambs are usually in May
- 1 Lamb per Ewe occasionally 2 Lambs

Hunting Regulations

- Recreational Hunting for male is August and September
- Nonresidents need a guide or a relative who is an Alaska resident
- Season dates are August 25 to September 25

Migration

Classification

- Name- Ovis Dalli
- Men and Women live separately
- A group is called a Band

Fun fact

- Pregnancy lasts 4.5 months and they only have 1 lamb

Male Dall Sheep

Female Dall Sheep

References

Sheep Life Cycle: Lesson for kids | Study.com. (n.d.). Retrieved from

<https://study.com/academy/lesson/sheep-life-cycle-lesson-for-kids.html>

Dfg.webmaster@alaska.gov. (n.d.). Dall Sheep Species Profile, Alaska Department of Fish and Game.

Retrieved from <http://www.adfg.alaska.gov/index.cfm%3Fadfg%3Ddallsheep.main>